MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Andrew T. Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director

SUBJECT : Issues & Answers, September 19th.

Your interview on ABC's Issues & Answers program will take place this Sunday, September 19. They request that you be at the studio at 11:20 a.m.; the show goes on at noon for 30 minutes and it is live. John Scali (Senior Correspondent) and Bob Clark (Congressional Correspondent and Issues & Answers regular) will be your interviewers. The ABC studio is on 1124 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.

Unless I hear to the contrary, I plan to accompany you on this occasion.

Dear Peggy:

Just a quicky. I appreciate your very kind letters. I sense your disappointment, but it's great the way you bounce back and put a positive look on things. I am looking forward to being with you whenever you think the time is right.

Your kind words about my new job mean an awful lot to me.

Sincerely,

/s/ George

Mr. George Bush

Dear Mr. Bush:

All of us at ABC News are disappointed that you are not appearing on "Issues and Answers" first as the new Director of C.I.A. As you know from the reams of letters, telegrams, telephone calls dating back to the first of December, we certainly tried.

However, being sorry is a negative virtue; I prefer a positive assertive approach ... everything's better the second time around. Mr. Thuermer mentioned Sunday, March 7th as a possibility. I should certainly like to consider this date. It is quite close to your guest appearance on Meet the Press ... which is bad. On the other hand, it might come as the first Sunday after the Church Committee Report is released ... which would be good.

Therefore, for the time being, I'd like to play it cool .. with March 7th very much in mind. I'll keep the date open and we can determine whether that date or one a little farther along might be best for you as well as for us.

In the meantime, all my very best wishes for a great success in your new, important post.

Most sincerely,

Peggy

Dear Mr. Bush:

All of us at ABC News extend our congratulations on your prompt appointment as Director of the C.I.A., and best wishes for a rewarding and successful term of office.

As you know from our many notes and telephone calls, we are hoping to arrange a guest appearance with you on ABC News' "Issues and Answers" just as soon as possible after your confirmation. An appearance by you in the very near future would seem to provide the American people with security, confidence, trust, interest, and an understanding of the importance of the C.I.A.

Whenever you are ready, we are. I did suggest February 15th to Jennifer as a good date which would give you time to "get your feet wet". I hope that this date, "live" or taped might suit you.

It's wonderful to see someone who has been a friend for a long time in a new position of such exalted responsibility. I want you to know that you have all my sincere regards.

Most sincerely,

Dear Saul:

Thanks for your congratulations of 30 January.
It's a tough job but I'm liking it.

I think I'll be able to work in some interviews in a couple of weeks and certainly would want to chat with you. Perhaps you would call my assistant, Angus Thuermer on 351-7676, and work out something.

Thanks especially for the clipping from 1964. It recalls the good old days, doesn't it? I am tucking away the clipping in my files.

This is in response to your letter of September 3 in which you invited Mr. Bush to be the featured speaker at the United Nations Day celebration in New Orleans.

I regret the demands on Mr. Bush's time are such that he will be unable to accept your kind invitation.

Thank you again for having him in mind.

Honorable George Bush
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Sir:

I write in confirmation and extension of a telephone conversation with [redacted] of your office. We wish to invite you to be the featured speaker at the United Nations Day celebration to be held in New Orleans during the weekend of October 24. However, the date may be adjusted in terms of your other schedule requirements. On most of these annual occasions the event has taken the form of a banquet at noon or in the evening. Consequently, it would be most useful to know as soon as possible in order to reserve space.

Traditionally the event has been co-sponsored by the United Nations Association of Greater New Orleans, the Foreign Relations Association, the League of Women Voters, Tulane University, and the other universities in the area, as well as civic organizations. I can assure you that you will be most cordially welcomed by all to our city but, having been here before, you probably will have little doubt on that score. Since I personally feel (along with many others) that the increasing tension and urgency in the international situation today demands the instrumentality of an effective international agency, it becomes increasingly desirable to advise our citizenry on these matters. Your close relationship with the UN enables you to make the significant and authoritative contribution to public awareness so needed now, and, as I see it, particularly so in this part of the country. We hope you may be able to join us and participate in the occasion. Please advise us of any additional information you may require as it may affect your decision.

Sincerely yours,

John S. Gillespie

A Professor Gillespie of Tulane University called yesterday to invite the DCI to be guest speaker at United Nations Day in New Orleans about October 24. Tulane is one of the sponsoring bodies. The professor will put his request in writing.

We recommend against the DCI appearance. It is a politically oriented event and very close to the elections.

Dear Admiral Armstrong,

Thank you for your very kind letter of July 27 to Mr. Bush. I have been instructed to provide you information that would be helpful in your group's study regarding secrecy and its control.

I fully appreciate the fact that your project is difficult and that you must, as you say, be impartial. It is my pleasure to enclose herewith a package of material that in varying degrees addresses your project. I sincerely hope that you will find it fully responsive to your needs.

Thank you for your interest, and we wish you the best of luck with your project.
